How to Maneuver Between the Various Camera Control Options

1. During your meeting you can bring up the local camera control menu and choose from four camera options.
2. To do so, simply press Camera Control in your in-meeting menu.

Option 1: Auto-Framing

Auto-Framing allows everyone in the meeting to be framed at any given time. The camera seamlessly adjusts automatically to keep you in the view.

Three participants framed together in group Auto-Framing.

Option 2: Auto-Framing with Multi-Focus Framing (Neat Symmetry)

Neat Symmetry takes Auto-Framing to the next level.*

When there are meeting participants in a room, Neat Symmetry zooms in on people at the back and shows them in equal proportion to participants at the front. Furthermore, Neat Symmetry allows the camera to automatically follow each framed-participant as they move around.

Multi-Focus Framing in Gallery View.

Option 3: Multi-Stream

If there are two or more participants in the meeting room, the Multi-Stream feature provides a new experience for the remote participants in the meeting room.

Option 3: Multi-Stream (Continued)

The meeting room is split over three separate frames: the first frame provides full view of the meeting room; the second and third frames show individually framed views of the participants in the meeting room (e.g. with four people, two in each frame; with six people, three in each frame).

Camera Controls

Multi-Stream with six participants, viewed over three frames in Gallery View.

Multi-Stream with three participants in the meeting room, viewed over three frames in Gallery View.

Option 4: Manual

Preset allows you to adjust the camera to the desired position.*
